TrendER Brand Vitality

“Measure what moves brands”

TrendER Vitality index is the key TrendER business differentiator and model. A methodology used for all of TrendER output. TrendER Vitality is a proprietary methodology designed to measure the true vitality of a brand in market.

It goes beyond traditional brand health metrics by combining:

Brand Strength (Meaning + Trust)

Market Energy (Signal + Momentum)

At the core of the methodology is a structured measurement model across four dimensions:

Signal → Are you seen?

Meaning → Do you matter?

Trust → Are you believed?

Momentum → Are you growing?

TrendER Creative Testing

“Understand what drives people”

A structured approach to evaluating advertising effectiveness, before and after launch.

It measures how well creative work performs across the key drivers of brand vitality:

Signal → Does it capture attention?

Meaning → Is the message clear and relevant?

Trust → Does it build credibility and brand linkage?

Momentum → Does it drive intent and action?

The result is a clear, diagnostic view of what's working, what's not, and how to improve it
